THEY NEVER FAIL.

That is What They Say About Them in Norway, and It is Therefore, Reliable.

Another proof, more evidence, Norway testimony to swell the long list of local people who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of that remarkable preparation:

Mrs. Julian Brown, Danforth St., Norway, Me., says: "I suffered from rheumatism for more than five years. I was treated by physicians and I took a great many remedies in an effort to find relief, but to no avail. About three months ago I was reading the testimonials given by different persons who had used Doan's Kidney Pills and I decided to give this remedy a trial. I procured a supply at Stone's drug store and I am now using my sixth box. Doan's Kidney Pills have done for me what no other treatment or remedy had previously accomplished, and I feel that it will only be a short time before I am entirely cured. I cannot recommend this excellent preparation too highly." 49 50

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and no other.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface. The only remedy is one which does not contain mercury, but is made from purest ingredients, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.

In trying Hall's Catarrh Cure you are sure to get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

The Fourteen Errors of Life.

To attempt to set up our own standard of right and wrong and expect everybody to conform to it.

To try to measure the enjoyment of others by our own.

To expect uniformity of opinion in this world.

To look for judgment and experience in youth.

To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.

Not to yield in unimportant trifles.

To look for perfection in our own actions.

To worry ourselves and others about what cannot be remedied.

Not to alleviate, if we can, all that needs alleviation.

Not to make allowances for the weaknesses of others.

To consider anything impossible that we cannot ourselves perform.

To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.

To live as if the moment, the time, the day were so important that it would live forever.

To estimate people by some outside quality, for it is that within which makes the man.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK.

Twenty-fifth Anniversary. Eva and Harlan Andrews gave their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Andrews, a surprise party Tuesday night. It was the 25th anniversary of their marriage. About 30 invited guests were present and made the evening lively with college songs, solos, duets, violin and bones. There was a treat of candy, peanuts, corn balls and apples. Uncle Ike was one of the merriest of the party.

The party broke up at 10:30 after wishing them many more years of happy married life together, leaving them these tokens of their esteem:

Money to purchase a dinner set—L. W. Andrews and wife.

Bread and milk set—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis.

Pair towels—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Davis.

Vase—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Q. Perham.

Paper center—Maynard Chase.

Pair tray cloths and two picture—Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Robbins.

Glass cake plate—Mrs. B. Andrews.

Hand made embroidered doily—Mrs. Julia Davis.

Fancy Thermometer—Edith Davis.

China cake plate—Mrs. E. B. Davis.

A box marked expressly for A. M. Andrews, containing a white Leghorn rooster, created a good deal of merriment. This was the gift of Cale Morrill.

The Welchville school had an entertainment, Saturday evening, at the schoolhouse. Among their sale of different things were twenty pairs of shoes. Some of them were sold as high as a dollar and a half. They made $26.50 and will buy a clock and books for the school.

One Million Dollars for A Good Stomach.

This Offer should be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the conditions of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune should serve as a warning to others. Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing—Pepsin. The absence of this destroys the function of the gastric fluids. They lose their power to digest food.

We are now able to supply the pepsin in a form almost identical to that naturally created by the system when in normal health, so that it restores to the gastric juices their digestive power, and thus makes the stomach strong and well.

We want every one troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia to come to our store and obtain a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. They contain Bismuth-Salicylate and Pepsin prepared by a process which develops their greatest power to overcome digestive disturbance.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are very pleasant to take. They soothe the irritable, weak stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, relieve nausea and indigestion, promote nutrition and bring about a feeling of comfort.

If you give Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets a reasonable trial we will return your money if you are not satisfied with the result. Three sizes 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Norway only at our store.—The Rexall Store. F. P. Stone, Main street, Norway, Me.

FRYEBURG.
A Swedish Party.

A very interesting Swedish party, or Kalas, was given at Fryeburg in the early part of November, by Mrs. John Buzzell to the teachers of the Fryeburg Academy and a few of her friends at her residence in the Fryeburg Academy dormitory on Main street. The guests arrived about six o'clock and were received by Mrs. Buzzell dressed in her native costume.

After being initiated in the proper way to make a Swedish country table, the guests were seated at a long table, the tables suitable for the occasion, they were ushered into the sitting-room where a small table was spread with a coffee service and cakes.

Mrs. Merrill was the leader or honored guest of the evening and bowing to the hostess helped herself to coffee, sharpeners, kringle and kletters. She bowed to the next honored guest and so on till everybody had served themselves.

After the coffee was finished the dinner was cleared away and games were played. A fox was formed on the table and everyone was blindfolded in turn and attempted to trace the fox with his forefinger, naming at the same time about the part he touched. This game is called "Lay the Fox" or in Swedish language "Lunga Raven." Another game played was "Udda O Maka" or "Odd and Even," and was simply guessing how many nuts some one else held in his hand.

These games finished the table was set again, this time with shrub and fancy cakes cut in various shapes such as half moons, etc., and frosted in little designs. These cakes are called soft "O Fina Cakor."

Everyone helped themselves as before and after this course Mrs. Buzzell had a social talk telling many stories of her native land and describing a party given to her in Sweden the year before, when fifty guests were entertained from eight in the evening till half past six in the morning, most of the time being daylight as the time was summer and place the land of the midnight sun.

At half-past eight the company was ushered into the dining-room to the real supper or "suppe." The table was ornately decorated with Swedish grasses and a Swedish flag. The food was enclosed on one half of the table, in a V shaped decoration made from napkins and united together to form a perfect letter and the knives and forks were placed artistically.

The table cloth itself was woven in Sweden by Mrs. Buzzell's mother. Around the point of the V were napkins to be used at supper and dishes for the different courses. The former were rolled and folded across each other in pairs.

In the menu were plain and smoked sardines, pickled herring and herring cooked in custard, cut meat loaf and meat balls, kof and cheese and bread and butter. The bread was the genuine round Swedish dry bread about a foot in diameter. This is said to last for three years and retain its original flavor.

The last course was a pudding made from apple sauce and decorated on the top with Swedish cranberry sauce. These cranberries are about the size of our mountain cranberries, but are much spicier and sweeter in flavor. They are brought from Sweden in water. With this pudding was served a Washington pie.

Everyone was supposed to bring an extra handkerchief to take home their "kynte" or sample of food in, this being a Swedish custom. At about ten the company left well laden and expressing themselves pleased with the agreeable and highly original entertainment.

Hugh Hastings was home from Bowdoin for his Thanksgiving dinner. Kate Walker has returned to her home in Bangor after a stay of two months at Elmbank.

S. W. Hubbard and family have gone to Washington for the winter. Mrs. Dana Webster and Ralph are occupying their house during their absence.

The funeral of Whitman Towle, who died after an illness of only two weeks, was held at the new church. The order of Burial was of which he was a member, attended in a body. Mr. Stone spoke words of comfort to relatives and friends. Mr. Towle was about 40 years of age. He leaves a widow, son and daughter besides parents, a brother and six sisters.

The supper and entertainment at the Congregational chapel was well attended. The entertainment consisted of violin solo by Elsie Abbott, vocal solos by Charles Hutcheson and Arline Hutcheson and readings by Raymond Farrington, Cathleen Brackett and Miss Wilson, who read a story entitled "Tape." The last number was an amusing farce called "Taking the Census."

As James Hobbs was loading some freight at the station his horses took fright at a freight train which was rapidly passing near them. Before Mr. Hobbs could get on the team they dashed against the moving train, breaking the pole in front of them and running against the station platform which halted them somewhat. They cleared themselves from the car, but were plucked up by Percy Smith who was also at the station for freight. The horses were not injured.

A Rest for the Lady.
"Here is the way papers will write up weddings ten years to come," says an exchange. "The bride looked very well in a traveling dress, but all eyes were centered upon the groom. He wore a dark suit that fitted his form perfectly, and in his dainty gloved hands he carried a small rose. His curly hair was beautifully done and a delicate odor of the best quality floated down the aisle as he passed. The young people will miss him of four weeks that I did when I commenced taking his medicine. I took everything I heard of. The first day of December, 1908, I got a box of Mi-o-na tablets. I took them that afternoon and the next day, and haven't since the 2d of December. I took five boxes. Feel well now, sleep good—that is something I haven't done in a number of years."
Mrs. M. E. Maxfield, R. F. D. 9, Avoca, N. Y., June 9, 1909.

FRESHENING UP GARMENTS.

How Old Dresses Can Be Made to Look Like New.

To a girl whose frocks are few spring is not that season of untrammelled joy of which poets sing, for, alas, the time of putting on thin dresses has not yet arrived, and those she has worn through the winter show they are not new, and for the average young woman it is not easy to be contented with old clothes. Where new ones are out of the question much may be done for little cost to freshen old garments if a girl will give time to the remodeling.

Dressing, sponging and putting on new finishes will really do wonders for an old suit, for example. Just as the best cloth dress in the world would not look well were it not pressed, so steaming and ironing will spruce up the old. Try it on one and see.

Take an old skirt, begin to rip at the waistband and unpick enough to allow it to lie perfectly flat. Then arrange an ironer's dress board on two chair backs, get a basin of hot water and a little liquid ammonia set in the seat of the chair where it will be handy. Next get a piece of cloth—any sort will do—such as tweed or covert coating, cut it about half a yard square or less and have three or four very hot irons at the fire. These are the most important, as they must just be under scorching point, and a stiff clothes brush will be needed.

Having collected all the requisites and spread the dress over the board, dip the piece of cloth in the water and wring it out as dry as possible, then spread it like a patch over the dress, smooth it down and iron quickly with the hottest iron. As soon as the iron has passed over the whole surface of the patch tear it quickly off, and while the cloth below is steaming brush up the nap with the clothes brush and leave it while you proceed to do the next square of the skirt, repeating the same process until the entire garment has been ironed that way.

How to Carve Successfully.

When carving use a chair slightly higher than the ordinary size, as this will give one better purchase on the meat. This also appears more graceful than standing, as is sometimes necessary when carving a turkey or a large joint. It requires more skill than strength to carve successfully. Commence by cutting the meat in thin slices and laying them carefully on the side of the platter and afterward laying the desired amount on each guest's plate. In carving fish, game or joints the carver should acquaint himself with the choicest pieces and should serve each guest an equal share of these, giving preference to none. Be careful when carving fish to keep it in perfect flakes, for if these are broken the beauty of the fish is lost. A steel carving knife should never come in contact with intense heat, for this destroys its temper, and it should never be used in the kitchen or for any use except carving meat.

How to Prepare For Danger From Fires.

If a fire breaks out near your home do not get into a panic, but prepare for emergencies. Remove draperies from the windows and roll up shades tight so that there is less inflammable material about. Close all windows to prevent drafts, and on the side of the fire shut the shutters unless you wish the glass to crack with the heat. Collect your most valuable belongings and pack them so that they may be removed at a minute's notice. If you have heavy old pieces of family furniture or pictures on the second floor have them brought to the lower floor. If fire once breaks out it will be impossible to bring them downstairs. Pack your dresses and other clothes in clothes baskets or hampers; they are less unwieldy than trunks. Keep jewelry and money tied around your neck. In the excitement they may be stolen from hand bags.

How to Save Stockings While Dancing.

Girls will not be half so apt to dance holes in their delicate silk stockings if only they will have slippers powdered inside. This simple operation permits the silk and shoe to rub together with decidedly less friction and the wear is thus not so great. A girl who dances much and who wears exquisitely embroidered stockings with all her party frocks and who feels a distinct grievance when holes appear has hit upon a plan that works well with her. By preserving the hosiery intact. She gives a small piece of velvet inside the back of the heel on each shoe.

Sewing Tips.

Hemming on lightweight wool goods should be done by hand and with a short needleful of split silk. This does away with the tight twisting of the fine single silk and in consequence makes a prettier hem. Another good plan is to use the ravellings of the material, as this is a perfect match and, having the same sheen as the material, does not show if a chance stitch goes through.

In stitching a pocket on the outside of a garment run the stitching half an inch above the edge of the pocket. This prevents the body of the garment from tearing, as is so often the case when the pocket is put on in the old way. When stitching around a cuff or wristband on the machine always turn the sleeve wringside out, then set the presser foot inside the wristband.

A nice little embroidery bag is made of cretonne covered with two embroidered hoops and finished at the ends with cardboard covered with cretonne just the size of the hoops. In other words, the bag is built like a barrel, with an opening at the side. This opening is held together by lacing with ribbon or by two buttons. The bag is carried by ribbon loops, which are fastened at each end to the embroidery hoops. It is pretty, and the sewing materials do not get lost when this protected.

A Referee Hearing.

A hearing was held at the court house Friday, before Judge A. R. Savage as referee, in suits between M. D. Sturtevant of Magalloway Plantation and E. L. Brown of Sumner. Both are lumbermen, and Mr. Sturtevant has a store at Magalloway.

In the fall of 1931, Mr. Brown, who had bought some standing timber in Dartmouth College Grant in New Hampshire, made a verbal contract with Mr. Sturtevant to get off several or more hundred thousand feet on the Swift Diamond River each of the next two winters. The first winter Mr. Sturtevant got off a little over a million, but did not operate the second winter, as he says he was notified by the agent of the owners of the township that they were not going to allow any more cutting.

Mr. Sturtevant brings suit against Mr. Brown for supplies furnished from his store to several crews operating for Mr. Brown in the winter of 1931-2 and the two following winters, amounting to several hundred dollars.

Mr. Brown brings suit against Mr. Sturtevant for damages for failing to carry out the lumbering contract, asserting that he cut the easiest part of the timber to get at and lost the hardest. He also claims six hundred dollars, which Mr. Sturtevant was owing another firm of operators who are owing Mr. Brown. Mr. Sturtevant had verbally agreed to pay the amount directly to Mr. Brown if it could be arranged, but because he did so, suit had been brought by other parties against the firm and Mr. Sturtevant had been trusted, and later he paid the six hundred dollars to the other parties.

All the matters were referred to Judge Savage, whose report will be made at the next term of court. Hon. James S. Wright is counsel for Sturtevant, and Hon. W. H. Newell of Lewiston for Brown.

A. F. Ellingwood, who has been engaged as guide at the Upper Dam, has been at home for a few days and brought with him two fine bucks. He will have the heads mounted.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stuart visited Mr. Stuart's brother, J. H. Stuart, while on their way from Gorham, N. H., to their home at Sea Breeze, Fla. They spent the summer at Gorham, N. H.

Leona Stuart, who is taking the special course at the Boston University, returned to Boston, Saturday, after spending Thanksgiving week with her parents, Miss Stuart resides at 35 High Street.

The Christmas sale of Paris Grange, which was planned for Thursday, Dec. 9, has been postponed until Saturday, Dec. 11 on account of the dedication of the Grange Hall at Norway, many from this section being desirous to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Tucker of Orono have bought the Nelson farm in Canton on the Edge of the Pond and plan to move there before Christmas. The Jersey herd which belonged to Mrs. Tucker's father, the late S. M. King, was retained when the farm was sold and will be taken there.

The Ladies Circle of the Congregational church will hold their annual fair, supper and entertainment at the Wednesday evening, Dec. 1 and 2. Thursday evening the supper will be served at 6.45 and will be followed by an entertainment at New Hall, given by the Vesper Male Quartet of Lewiston. Harry L. Webber will be the reader.

The funeral of Albert H. Lawrence was held Saturday afternoon at his home near the Buckfield line, attended by Rev. A. W. Pottle. Mr. Lawrence died, Thursday, in the hospital at the Soldier's Home, Chelsea, Mass. He was 78 years old. He leaves one son, Oliver E. Lawrence, and a daughter, Mrs. Walter Brown of West Paris. The burial took place at North Buckfield.

Farm Buildings Burnt.

The farm buildings of Thomas Poole, about two miles out of Bethel on the Greenwood road, were totally destroyed by fire, about 4 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The fire started in the barn, from a lantern, and while Mr. Poole was trying to save what he could of his stock his wife in the house tried to telephone for help but failed to reach anyone. She then aroused the six children and had barely time to get them out of the house before the building was all in flames. But very little of anything in the house was saved and the mother and children saved only a few articles of clothing.

Mr. Poole saved a pair of work horses, but lost two heifers, all farming implements, all his supplies for the winter, practically everything but his family and the two horses not saving even the harness. There was about $500 insurance.

The blow is a hard one for Mr. Poole and his family. Neighbors and friends are doing what they can to assist them in their misfortune.

J. S. Burbank has not returned from his hunting trip.

E. C. Park was confined to the house two days with a sore throat, but is out again.

A social party was held Thursday evening in O. G. Hall, under the direction of Elsie Hall.

Verna Howe of South Paris, spent Thanksgiving with Rev. Mr. Little's family, and remained over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Park, with their daughter, spent Thanksgiving at South Paris with Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Stearns.

The prospect of a coal famine here is broken. Mr. Davis, our local dealer, has several car loads here on the way. This mild weather has favored those who are waiting for coal.

Quite a number of South Paris people have visited at Mr. Little's since he moved here. Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Tucker were there Saturday and over Sunday, a week ago. Mrs. Millie Fox and friend called the same day.

Richard Gates and wife of Paris, came up on the morning train, attended church and returned in the afternoon.

A Christmas tree and concert are being talked up for the Universalist Sunday School, which is steadily growing. Mrs. Burbank, formerly of South Paris, has a class of boys, and Mrs. Little serves as spare teacher, filling in when a teacher is absent. The juvenile class has life enough for three or four classes.

Last week gave us a mixture of weather; winter, spring, summer, and winter again. Wednesday, we had a good old fashioned snow storm for several hours, the white flakes continuing into the evening of night, then turning to rain, and keeping at it till daylight, Thursday. A little hail early in the morning, then rain in showers and fog through the day; Friday was quite mild and Saturday was like a summer's day for several hours. About six inches of snow fell, and the sleighs came out Thursday afternoon in spite of fog and rain, and light sleighs have been in use up to Monday morning. A few are still in use, gliding and grinding along on the side of the road, where one and sometimes both runners are on the snow.

Sunday afternoon a party here drove out seven miles with a sleigh and found good, bad and poor sleighing. On the return they came over Grover Hill and found good sleighing most of the way.

Thanksgiving day, with rain falling and plenty of wet snow under foot, was very unfavorable for walking and the Union Thanksgiving service at the Universalist church, had a rather small audience present, only 63. The order of service was as follows:

Organ Voluntary.
Prayer—Mrs. Adams.
Choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Willey, with the singers from the three church choirs.
Scripture Reading—Mr. Springer.
Hymn—Mrs. Adams.
Prayers—Mrs. Adams.
Response—Mrs. Adams.
Solo—Rev. Mr. Little.
Sermon—Rev. Mr. Little.
Benediction—Rev. Mr. Little.

Rev. Mr. Baughart was called away in the midst of the storm, to attend a funeral, and was unable to be at the service.

Thomas Kounagh, Jr., is very sick with pneumonia.

J. S. Burbank of Bethel and Dana Dresser of South Paris came in from their hunting trip Tuesday.

Freeman Bennett, a trapper and hunter outside the village here, is reported to have got $87 worth of fur during the month of November.

Dec. 9th, Bethel Lodge of Masons will work the third degree. An official installation will be made at that time by District Deputy Inspector A. J. Swan of Bryant Pond.

Mrs. C. C. Bryant, who was taken to King's hospital at Woodford, Sunday night for treatment, underwent a very successful operation Monday morning and is now very comfortable.

Thursday evening a special meeting of Bethel Grange was held at which time the committee appointed to look into a lighting system for the hall will report. The members of the committee are E. H. Smith, Lyman Wheeler and V. E. Valentine.

The ladies of the Congregational church circle will hold a Christmas sale the afternoon of Dec. 9, and at 6 o'clock a chicken pie supper will be served. The following committees have been appointed for the affair: Miscellaneous and fancy table, Mrs. W. O. Swan, Susan Twitchell, Kate Foster, Mand Thurston, Mrs. Alice Farwell and Mrs. True; apron booth, Mrs. F. B. Tuell, Mrs. Eli Barker, Mrs. E. E. Holt, Mrs. Baker Thurston and Mrs. Alice Copeland; supper, Mrs. B. Valentine, Mrs. Whitman, Mrs. Harlow, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. E. Barker, Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. Philbrook; candy table, Belle Purington and Miss Waterbury.

Grover Hill.

George Kirkland has employment with Will Hutchinson.

A. J. Peaselee of Bethel was at N. A. Stearns', Nov. 28.

Snow came here Nov. 24 and Thanksgiving was a rainy day.

Arthur Browne worked in the woods for M. F. Tyler last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Stearns of Bethel Hill were at N. A. Stearns', Sunday.

Mrs. James A. Hammond and Gwendolyn Stearns were in Norway Nov. 23.

One Dose for Coughs

Children cough at night? Give them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Often a single dose at bedtime will completely control the cough. Good for any one with a cold or cough. Good for easy cases, hard cases; good for acute cases, chronic cases. Ask your doctor to tell you, honestly and frankly, just what he thinks of this old standard remedy. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

DON'T KNOCK TILL YOU'RE SURE.

Perhaps you got swindled, but maybe you didn't, on that five dollar setting of fancy eggs, simply because the finest, fresh, fertile eggs may be made to hatch nothing or the worst of culs because the eggs aren't set right or the chicks aren't fed right or housed right.

Eggs are porous. What chance have they in a dirty nest or a filthy, foul smelling coop? Fine eggs can't hatch fine chicks in a poor incubator, nor can a hen whose vitality has been lowered by starvation, sickness or lice keep the heat up to that degree to hatch good livable chicks.

Chicks from high scoring ancestry may be changed into scrawny culs by bad feeding. Peeps from the whitest birds may grow to look like two legged brass kettles simply by giving them no shade and feeding yellow corn. Lice or a crowded, damp, dirty or badly ventilated coop will do any hatch. David called all men liars, but it wasn't true. He was really just excited through and through. When you're hot beneath the collar and feel like knocking, too, just don't throw those heavy bricks 'Till you're sure it isn't you.

HOW TO FEED CHICKS.

When another brought the "peepies" in her apron from the barn your first thought was to get bread crumbs to feed them. Wasn't it jolly to see the little fellows eat? But that was one of the few mistakes mother made, for chicks should not be fed for a day after hatching, so they may have time to digest the yolk which they absorb before leaving the shell.

Feeding so soon brings the deadly white diarrhea. Feed mother hen alone, but turn her babies out on a clean place free from indigestibles, for with them, like other babies, "every thing goes to mouth."

Fresh water and air for their first day's feed. Then for two days scatter a little chick grit and sweet, dry, fine bread crumbs.

Feed little, but often, just enough that their crops are half full in the day and two-thirds at night and never allow feed to lie around.

WHITE PLYMOUTH ROCK AND CHICKS.

After two days feed finely sieved ground mixed grain such as wheat, corn and millet and add a little meat scrap or raw meat.

Do not feed meat if using hard boiled eggs, but do not feed the latter till chicks are a week old, and then sparingly.

Wet cornmeal, bran, cooked and baked preparations are not good or necessary, but sound cracked grain for chicks and whole as they grow older fill the bill.

Chicks on range often need no meat or greens, as grass, worms and bugs take their place. Lettuce and tender green clover furnish the fine green food which their system requires.

DON'TS.

Don't be afraid to give good measure. You hold your trade, give pleasure, gain treasure.

Don't expect to buy thoroughbred breeders for a song. Such an idea is altogether wrong.

Don't waste your money on bargain counter eggs. Such trash will hatch a smash.

Don't let cheap John sell you an incubator. He's the advance agent of the undertaker.

Don't spend your time monkeying with the regulator. Follow the rules of the incubator.

Don't throw up the sponge and quit for a few discouragements. Fight on. The solar plexus is often delivered in the last round.

Don't forget to have the brooder dry and clean, free from leaks and filth and crawlers mean.

Only a few pairs of shop worn, out of style footwear at Partridge Bros' store, Norway Lake. See ad.

OXFORD.

School Improvement League.
The Welchville branch of the School Improvement League held an entertainment in the schoolhouse at Welchville, Saturday evening. The objects of the league are to improve the physical conditions of the school. To help provide libraries, pictures and needed equipment. To train pupils, teachers and citizens, is a movement for the improvement of educational facilities, thereby cultivating a sense of responsibility for school conditions, and to make the school a central point of interest in the community. It is earnestly requested that each parent and friend of the school become a member of the league in their district.

It is also suggested that each local league adopt the name of some person prominent in the literature of the locality, state or nation, and that the school committee be requested to give the name likewise to the school. There is no cost to any parent or friend of the scholars to become a member of the league, but it is taken for granted that members will do whatever they can to improve the school conditions.

The schoolroom at Welchville was well filled when at eight o'clock Theodore Brett opened the show, and from then until the close of the entertainment, the audience were treated to a lot of good things from the little folks. One little chap had such a bad cold that it was impossible for him to talk, and after making several vain efforts, said, "The best I can do is to say good night." The teacher and pupils worked hard to make the entertainment a success, and were ably assisted by both parents and friends, and the good work was appreciated and applauded by the audience.

At the close of the entertainment Joseph W. Hunting sold at auction, a homogeneous collection of pies of all sizes and colors, but they looked good even to the dyspeptic. Mr. Hunting did a land office business, and the league made the handsome sum of $26.50. The following is the program:

On account of the sickness of the pastor, Rev. D. L. Joslin, the Rev. O. L. Stone filled the pulpit Sunday A. M., at the Methodist church.

Owing to many absences, and the fact that their meeting night came on Thanksgiving, the Division S. of T. omitted their regular meeting of last week.

The winter term of all the public schools, except the East Oxford school, began Monday, Nov. 29. The winter term at East Oxford will begin Monday, Dec. 6th, and continue ten weeks.

The Craigie Lodge, K. of P. held their regular weekly meeting Tuesday night, and initiated one member into the rank of Page. There will be considerable work in the lodge this winter and the members are earnestly requested to be present.

Although the weather man served up some uncomfortable weather on Thanksgiving evening yet the ball in Robinson hall was well patronized. Music was furnished by the Oxford cornet band, 18 pieces, and supper was served in S. of T. hall.

On Saturday, Dec. 4, Oxford Grange will hold their annual election of officers and it is the earnest request of the worthy Master that we have a full attendance. On Saturday evening, Dec. 18th, there will be work in the third and fourth degrees, followed by an oyster supper.

Saturday, Nov. 27th, Frank Bailey and Thomas Lanihan were quite severely injured by the upsetting of a team. Both men were bruised and battered. Lanihan's scalp was laid open to the extent of four inches, and he also received a severe cut over the eye. Both parties are improving.

John Colby Frost.

Colby Frost of Bolster's Mills passed away about noon, Sunday, after about a year's illness although confined to his bed only a few days. Mr. Frost was born in Struma, Aroostook county, Aug. 4, 1838. He married Laura H. Gammon of Norway, 28 years, having lived in Bolster's Mills about eight years, in the house formerly owned by C. Loton Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frost have had four children: Alice M., Lida B., Charles C. and Carrie M., all deceased. Alice M. married William Carley of Harrison and resided in Massachusetts till her death some years ago.

Mr. Frost leaves a brother, Weston Frost of Norway and one sister, Mrs. T. W. Greene of Saco; also two half-brothers, James Frost of Norway and Simon Frost of New Mexico.

SOUTH HARRISON.

A Sudden Death.

Our entire community was startled and saddened Nov. 16, by the sudden death of Susie E., wife of Geo. W. DeWitt, at her home in South Harrison. She was born Oct. 24, 1879, and was the eldest daughter of Josiah and Martha (Wentworth) Strout. This death is especially sad as she leaves six little children, the oldest being 11 years old. Besides the family of little ones she leaves a kind husband, father, mother and one sister, Mrs. Warren L. Flagg, to mourn their loss.

She was a person of amiable and womanly disposition and made friends with all who met her. Her death was one of the saddest afflictions to kind-folks and a large circle of friends ever known in this region. A good woman, who was universally loved and respected, has passed away.

Funeral services were held at the parental home of the deceased, Nov. 18th, conducted by Rev. Mr. Nye of Naples. Interment was at Edes Falls.

EAST SWEDEN.

D. T. Adams is under a doctor's care at present.

A. B. Smart is working in the woods Thell, Bennett.

Mr. Cunningham of Peru is working for Harry Bisbee.

Mrs. Etta Carson has gone to North Bridgton where she will visit at J. W. Nevers' for a while.

F. H. Bisbee is piping his well across the road the house and have a pump at the sink. Mr. Bisbee has the basement to his new boiler house up.

Isaac Smith, we learn, is moving from his home in Waterford to the Bidon neighborhood where he and his wife will live in the Wm. Bidon house while Mr. Smith is cutting timber near by.

NORTHEAST LOVELL.

Mrs. Freeman Andrews and daughter went to the village, Saturday.

Orrington Rose, wife and little son Chester went to Stoneham, recently.

Clinton Milliken of Portland is visiting his mother, Mrs. George Milliken.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kendall and family were at his mother's, Friday of this week.

Freeman Andrews' wife and daughter spent Thanksgiving at his sister's, Mrs. Adna Rowe's.

Otis Andrews and wife, Elwell Andrews and Will Stanford and wife were at John Kendall's, Sunday.

The community was shocked to hear of the death of Bert Harriman of Slab City which occurred, Friday, about four o'clock. He was only sick about a week although he had not been well all summer. The funeral was Monday afternoon at one o'clock. He leaves three brothers, one sister and a step-mother.

In the Sunny South.

St. Joseph, Mo. Editor ADVERTISER.—We are having a touch of cool weather here in Saint Joe, but up to a week ago it has been like summer; very much like the days which June brings to Maine, soft, warm and balmy, full of golden sunshine and bird songs, and yet there was the sweet scent of falling leaves in the air.

To me it seems unnatural, this falling of the leaves while still green, for Nature does not use her paint brush very freely in this climate. There are no gorgeous colorings of trees and vines such as delight the eye and feed the soul among the hills of Old Oxford County. But to many, the warm, soft days stretching into the middle of November, being a great relief for the loss of color; but, a few yards out—roads in some places—the mud flats are lost in beautiful, dimpling blue waters. It is a very dangerous river as it carries a strong undertow, and there is a legend that, many years ago, the daughter of an Indian chief, and her lover, sought death beneath its waters, choosing to die in each other's arms rather than to be separated by a stern father. Since then, it is said, no one who has fallen into the river has been rescued, the strong undertow sweeping them to sure death.

Only a few weeks ago, three young ladies working in the National Biscuit Company's candy manufactory which is located here close on the river, went out into a boat to eat their lunch at the noon hour, when one of them rose suddenly, the boat tipped and she fell into the water. Although it was close to the shore and many men were near, she was swept out into the current and drowned before the eyes of hundreds of people. It is a good river to keep away from.

Some days ago I received an invitation from the city editor of The Saint Joseph News Press to visit the printing office and see the linotype machines in operation. Accordingly, yesterday afternoon, I walked down to the office, entered the sanctum sanctorum, was cordially received and politely conducted over the entire edifice. Besides the editorial staff it takes a force of about 40 employees to get out the six daily editions of the large 14-page paper and do the immense amount of job printing. Nine linotype machines were in operation, each doing the work of from five to seven compositors, according to the skill of the operator, and while you, Mr. Editor, are perfectly familiar with everything along this line, some of your readers may be interested in a few words regarding them.

They are much more complicated than I had any idea of, being quite large and costing about $2,500 each. They are operated on the same plan as the typewriter only requiring a much lighter touch, the mere weight of the fingers resting on the keys being all that is required. As I watched, I could easily understand why they are called linotypes as the type is set in solid lines instead of single words, each letter being formed from a cup of molten metal and joined as soon as formed to the preceding letter until a line had been formed. When it dropped into place, clean and shining like silver. It is evident that no line can be used a second time, so, after being taken from the forms they are thrown into a huge vat which, like a bubbling like molten silver in the corner of the press room, there being, I was told, about six tons of boiling metal in the vat. As I looked down into its shining depths I shuddered to think what would be the result if it should burst its confines.

No printers' ink is allowed to touch these white lines of type; instead an impression is taken after the forms are locked by placing over them a piece of very thick, heavy paper previously lined with soft tissue paper. Over this is laid a piece of wet felt when the form is passed under a heavy roller which dries the damp paper and when it is lifted from the form it shows a perfect impression of the type. This is fitted into a steel mould and the molten metal from the "witness" caldron is run in and allowed to cool, after which it is removed from the mould, the paper stripped off leaving an impression on the mould which is then trimmed, placed on the press and the printing done, after which the mould is carefully cleaned and thrown back into the "caldron." But first it must be perfectly dried for if a drop of water happens to touch the molten metal someone carries a scar in consequence, and but few lines are good but are more or less deeply marked.

When the thunder of the four huge presses, all running together, filled the room one could hardly hear ones self think, and what, I remember, the lightning shadows and the boiling caldron, when a woman came in with a paper cap on her head and a broom in her hand, I suddenly thought of Macbeth, the gloomy heath and the attendant witches, and hastily thanking my attentive guide I wended my way up many steps to the sunny outer air.

What Children Need

An occasional dose of the true "L. F." Atwood's Bitter keeps the little ones healthy and happy. It gently cleanses the little bowels, drives out the worms and compels healthy regular action.

No other remedy works so quickly, pleasantly and effectively—so be sure it's the genuine "L. F." 35 cents a bottle at the store.

Purest Flour

"Of the various qualities of flour obtained from the same wheat, the lower grades are those most contaminated with grease, dirt, and objectionable bacteria; the freedom of flour from these, increases with its purity."

Profr. Wm. Jago, the well-known English chemist.

The purity of William Tell flour is due to the costly equipment and exceptional care to keep the grain and flour clean.

The wheat is stored in hermetically sealed tanks at the big mills of Ansted & Burk Co.

Before grinding, it is cleaned six times.

Neither grain nor flour ever touches anything but the bright, clean surfaces of dust-proof machinery. Even the flour bags are sewed up by machinery.

William Tell comes to you from the mills with all the brilliant bloom that only Ohio wheat can make. Ask your dealer, and insist on having—

BRYANT'S FOND.

Sailed for Liverpool, Saturday.
Quite a little party of Bryant's Fond people are sailing for Liverpool on Saturday, Dec. 4th, on the Dominion liner "Canada." This party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. George Allan England, Isabel England and Mrs. Sumner Sessions. They expect to be gone some months, visiting Liverpool, London, Paris, Marseilles and other points, where Mr. England will collect material for his literary work.

The "Canada" is one of the finest and largest liners out of Portland. She is some 500 feet long, 10,000 tons burden, and carries 700 or 800 passengers—a veritable floating palace. She is equipped with wireless, and all modern improvements, and is in every way a most splendid example of the ship-builder's art.

Mrs. Sessions has recently sold her home in Bryant's Pond and intends to travel for some time, in search of rest and recreation.

Ansel Taylor is cutting wood for J. E. Hathaway.

The Woodstock and Greenwood Union Tel. Co., held their annual meeting Nov. 26. The old board of officers was elected.

NORTH HARTFORD.

Silver Wedding.
The twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Davenport was observed on Tuesday evening by a party of relatives and friends to the number of forty-two.

Nov. 24 was their wedding day but on account of Thanksgiving it was thought wise to meet the previous evening. Although the event was an entire surprise the friends were most cordially welcomed by both host and hostess, and a very happy evening was passed enlivened by games, graphophone selections, and greeting of old friends.

The happy couple were the recipients of a number of pretty and useful articles, including silver, glassware and money. The following poem was written and read by Martha Sanchez:

Silver Wedding.
Twenty-five years in life they'd journeyed
Together all the way;
And at this time we celebrate
Their silver wedding day.
The time may seem, if measured,
But a long, long time ago,
Since she became his sweetheart bright,
And he his many-manly man.
Since that day they were united,
Here to his home and heart,
And there to his home and heart,
They were no more to part.
And the time may seem short,
When they in mind and spirit
The things that happened in the past
Of these beloved two.
To closer kind times there came
Into their home in time,
Two children of helplessness and care;
Round them their love and time
The first that came into their lives,
It was a sturdy boy,
Too frail around their home,
He was their pride and joy.
But now he's reached a man's estate,
And with them does not stray;
Although he's here to celebrate
This happy day.
And though away from home those stay,
And may travel far and wide,
And though their hearts are far apart,
To lighten their burden have tried.
Next came into their home
A little girl, a precious one,
Who has always filled their life and home
With joyfulness and laughter.
Away she went to school a long year,
Never from their home to roam,
To share their lives, their sorrows and cares,
And always to be their sunbeam at home.
For she's always ready to help with the work
Of either her father or mother,
And with her bright smile she carries all day
Makes her neighbors and friends all love her.
And so these relations and friends,
Have gathered in this pleasant way,
And hope that they will live to enjoy
This happy day.

Refreshments of cake and coffee concluded the evening's entertainment, and at a late hour the friends departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Davenport many more such pleasant anniversaries.

WEST PARIS.

Five New Houses.
The five new houses on Pioneer street built by L. C. Bates this year, are nearing completion.

Two of them are done and Ed Berry and family of Bethel have moved into one and James Perry and family into the other.

Two others will be done in a few weeks and are to be occupied by A. D. Coburn and J. E. Brook.

The fifth house has no one wanting it and may not be finished up this winter. These are all nice modern houses, each differently designed, and with the grounds graded, a row of young shade trees and a few sidewalk street presents a very smart appearance.

Thanksgiving Notes.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lurvey were at F. L. Wyman's.
